ROMAN CATHOLICS, NONJURORS,
And others, who refus'd to take the OATHS

To his late MAJESTY

King G E O R G E.

Together with

Their TITLES, ADDITIONS, and PLACES of Abode; the PARISHES and TOWNSHIPS where their LANDS lay; the NAMES of the then TENANTS, or Occupiers thereof;
and the Annual Valuation of them, as estimated by themselves.

Transmitted to the late COMMISSIONERS for the Forfeited Estates of England and Wales, after the Unnatural Rebellion in the North, in the Year 1715.

As appears by the Returns of the Clerks of the Peace for the several Counties, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made for Registering their Estates, in the First Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty.

Taken from an

ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT of a Gentleman, who was the Principal Clerk to the Accomptant General's Office, belonging to the said Commissioners.

And now Published with a Generous View to promote and serve the true Protestant Interest of these Kingdoms.

— Corrected by James O'Brien

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE following List, which was carefully collected by my deceased Father, when he acted as Secretary to the Honourable Commissioners, for forfeited Estates, appointed in the Reign of your Royal Father, after that unnatural Rebellion in the Year 1715, is on this Occasion most humbly presented to your Majesty, by

S I R,

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful Subject,

JAMES COSIN.

TO THE
P U B L I C K.

THE following LIST of Estates, which was collected by Authority in the Year 1715, is published, at this Time, with no other View, but to assist the Magistrates, and other Officers, who shall happen to be intrusted with the Execution of such Orders of Government, as either have already been, or may hereafter be issued, for suppressing the Growth, and unhappy Effects, of the present rebellious Insurrection in the North; which, its hoped, will caution the Possessors of such Estates, at this Juncture, carefully to keep within the Bounds, of their known Duty, to our Gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, and his Rightful Government over them; unto which, it is conceived, they will find themselves more especially obligated, if they only please to observe, that many of them (who in the said Year neglected to give in such a particular Account of the Value of their respective Estates, as was then under severe Penalties required of them by Law, were never, as yet, called upon to answer for such Neglect, but gently permitted to go on quietly, and to partake equally with their Fellow-Subjects, of all that Lenity and other blessed Effects, of a mild Administration in Government, which these Kingdoms have peacefully enjoyed,

P R E F A C E.

joyed, ever since the most joyful and happy Accession of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, to the Throne.

N. B. The Estates which appear to have been registered, but not valued, belong to such as neglected their Duty, in complying with the legal Orders of the Government at that Time.
